- ☐ The equipment is sold on an "as is" basis (tick to apply)

Where ticked above, the Buyer acknowledges that it has inspected the equipment or had the opportunity to do so and accepts the equipment in its present condition. Subject to the reasonableness test under the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977, s.11, the Seller hereby excludes, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the implied terms of satisfactory quality (SGA 1979, s.14(2)) and fitness for a particular purpose (SGA 1979, s.14(3)).

Note: This exclusion clause is void and unenforceable in any Business-to-Consumer (B2C) transaction. A consumer buyer retains a 30-day right to reject defective equipment (CRA 2015, s.31).

- The document must be registered at the High Court (King's Bench Division) within 7 clear days of execution (Bills of Sale Act 1878, s.8); failure to register renders the transfer void against the Seller's creditors and insolvency practitioners.
